

CHARACTERS FOR NCEA LEVEL 3 CHINESE

LIST ONE: COMPULSORY CHARACTERS

Explanatory Notes:

- A single character followed by its English meaning is unrestricted; i.e. it can be combined with other characters in List One and /or Two; e.g. bú cuò.
- If the term “e.g.” precedes the compounds, other compounds of that character using characters from either list may be used.
- In the examination paper, any Chinese characters or compounds (vocabulary items) not included in Appendix One will be glossed (in Pinyin and English) above the relevant passage and underline in the text.
- Words in brackets are just root meanings.
